Customer Reviews

Quick OverviewAre you home (or on the road) alone? Are you tired of Fast Food, microwave noodles or sandwiches for all your meals? Lord knows I was sick and tired of junk food while living as a bachelor in Libya, while my wife stayed in Cairo. At the time, fast food wasn't even really an option. It was tuna, chips, cheese and juice or long-life milk for most every meal --- I gained fifty pounds in a year and friends assumed I was eating good. Hah. I actually could have put the contents of this book to work for me in Tripoli, and been far healthier today. Instead I have Diabetes Type 2 and bouncing between 270 and 300. Yes, that intro is a long way of leading into this, ALMOST spectacular cookbook. There are a number of tantalizing meal combinations displayed that certainly would help satisfy one's palate while not overwhelming their body's ability battle against deteriorating health. Read on to learn what I loved and what I did not love about this meal preparation guidebook.
