Customer Reviews

For a gourmet cook like me, this is an amazing resource. One tends shop near home and I know quite well all the best providers on the Upper East Side. However, for many products, the best suppliers are in other parts of town that I am much less familiar with; I cannot wait to visit some of the wonderful shops that are described. Extra bonuses are the recipes and, particularly, the wonderful photographs. Great for the kitchen, the coffee table and gifts. A must for every Manhattan resident.

Consider this visual treat a must-own for serious foodies and cooks alike. Stunning photography best likened on a full stomach otherwise the hunger pains become woefully apparent. Here's an excellent gift for a friend who shares your love of foraging. Wish "Gourmet Shops of New York" had a glove-compartment size edition for my travels throughout the wonderful & exciting boroughs of NYC. Susan Meisel and Nathalie Sann have written an endless quest for the best.

this comprehensive exploration of gourmet shops in all five boroughs is a great source book and a great learning tool. On top of which there are a ton of terrific recipes using ingredients from recommended shops

This book is amazing. First, they cover all 5 boroughs of New York. They have researched gourmet food shops that are so committed to a given food legacy and they offer recipes for the products sold. It is a treasure trove of great finds. My husband and I plan to make outings to visit so many of these places, especially in the outer boroughs. We know the selections must be great because some are quite consistent with those we know to be the most genuine and the best. The writing is nothing short of great. The photos are scrumptious.

The book arrived quickly. The Pictures are beautiful. And info on Gourmet shops and deli's are great. A terrific book for foodies.
