Molly At The Dentist

Synopsis

Molly finally has two teeth, and now she must go to the dentist for a checkup. But Molly doesn't want to open her mouth for Dr. Brushwell. Young readers will delight in lifting the flaps on each page to watch as Molly's stubbornness slowly gives way to the realization that a visit to the dentist isn't so bad after all. Angie Sage's simple text and bright, playful illustrations make Molly's story irresistible. Molly is sure to become a favorite of both parents and children, and this sturdy book will last through many repeated readings.
